IV DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION CONCERNING CIVIL LAW CONTRACTS

Article 6(1)(b) and (f) of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data (General Data Protection Regulation - GDPR) and Article 5(c) of Regulation 2018/1725 in the scope of data transferred to the European Commission as part of the programmes managed by the European Commission and its agencies form the basis for the processing of data.

The processing of data is necessary to execute civil law contracts, including to make settlements of financial, tax and insurance accounts, keep record of the number of hours worked and for other purposes resulting from our legitimate interests. Personal data provided by You will be kept for as long as it is specified in special legal provisions applicable to financial settlements, including those relating to taxes and social insurance. Such data is protected using technical and organisational measures in order to guarantee an adequate level of protection in accordance with binding regulations.

Data Controller does not acquire data from third parties or sources available to the public. Data Controller only processes data provided by You in order to execute the contract. Such data may be made available to:

- a. companies providing to Data Controller IT, accounting, administrative and other relevant services;
- b. institutions that manage programmes implemented by FRSE, in the scope that it is indispensable to carry out these programmes.

You have the right to:

- obtain information about the processed data, including the categories of processed data and possible recipients of data;
- require the rectification of incorrect data or have incomplete personal data completed;
- obtain from the Data Controller the erasure of personal data or restriction of data processing, in accordance with the provisions of GDPR;
- object to data processing, in accordance with the provisions of GDPR;
- receive the personal data provided to the Data Controller in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and transmit such data to another controller;
- lodge a complaint to a supervisory authority, i.e. the President of the Personal Data Protection Office (Polish: Prezes Urzędu Ochrony Danych Osobowych), ul. Stawki 2, 00-193 Warszawa -- if You find that your data is illegally processed.

Your personal data will not be transferred to a third country or an international organisation, which is located outside of the European Economic Area.

You have the right to object to the processing of any and all personal data at any time. Such an objection does not affect the legality of data processing conducted prior to the objection. The objection can be submitted by sending a declaration to that end to the registered seat of FRSE.

Any motions, questions and requests related to data protection should be sent via email to: iod@frse.org.pl

V AUTHORISATION AND OBLIGATIONS

I hereby authorise the Foundation for the Development of the Education System to process my personal data for the needs of record keeping, taxation and social insurance purposes linked to the execution of this contract. I also declare that the information given by me in this form is true.

I am aware that:

- providing false information may lead to legal consequences, including in particular the obligation to compensate for damage resulting therefrom suffered by the Foundation for the Development of the Education System;
- if I provide false information concerning social contribution settlements with the Social Insurance Institution and if information provided by me turns out to be erroneous, I undertake to pay any resulting additional contributions due to the Social Insurance Institution.

I declare that I am familiar with the provisions of Polish Penal Fiscal Code concerning liability for providing inaccurate data.

I hereby undertake to notify the Foundation for the Development of the Education System about any changes to information provided in this document within seven days of their occurrence.
